

Coralee Foster

Coralee is a partner in the BDO Mitchell office. Coralee has been with BDO Dunwoody LLP and its predecessor firm since 1992. Her client base is primarily agricultural including agribusinesses and primary producers in poultry, livestock, dairy, cash crop and edible horticultural producers. Coralee assists her clients with accounting, taxation, bookkeeping, succession and estate planning, consulting and government program applications. As well, she provides a variety of business planning, financing, cash flow projections and other advisory services for her clients.

Coralee is the co-chair of the firm's agricultural group, long time treasurer of the Oxford County Federation of Agriculture and member of the Kirkton Agricultural Society. Coralee and her husband and sons operate a large cash crop and beef operation in Perth County.

John Hunt

John has been a CA for about 25 years now, and specializes in agricultural clients, large and small, as well as agribusinesses and co-operatives. This is a natural specialization for John, given that he was raised on a busy Bruce County, Ontario dairy farm, as was his wife Darlene.

John assists clients with regulatory requirements for tax and accounting matters, as well as planning issues such as succession planning, estate planning, financing of expanding operations, farm program applications and planning, and many other issues. In addition to being the Managing Partner of the BDO Hanover office, John is also co-chair of the Agricultural Significant Interest Group for BDO.
